

The Dispute Resolution Center of West Michigan

presents an

8– Hour Advanced Mediator Training

With

Peg MacDougal

GC and Domestic Mediators need 8 hours of advanced mediator training every two years!

This training won't just fulfill your court roster requirement: It will provide you with more tools to become an even better mediator! Whether you mediate a lot or a little, this is an opportunity to learn more about:

- Assessing competence and capacity
- Domestic violence screening in domestic, civil and probate cases
- Difficult personalities and mental health issues in mediation
- Safety in mediation
- Brain science
- The latest case updates
- And much, much more!

Learn through small group work, micro-role plays, videos, and from real life domestic and general civil cases. You will become a better mediator and improve your mediation practice!
