 At Michigan State, Brian teaches a variety of negotiation, mediation, and other ADR courses. An active mediator and mediation trainer, Brian is trained in both facilitative and transformative methods. Brian received an LL.M. in Dispute Resolution from the University of Missouri, a J.D. from Wayne State University School of Law, and a Masters of Public Policy from the University of Michigan. He is currently a PhD candidate in Public Administration at the University of Kansas. Brian is the Co-Chair of the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution's Law Schools Committee, and is a member of the State Bar of Michigan ADR Section's Governing Council. In that role he serves as the Chair of the Governmental Task Force. He also serves on the board of the National Association for Community Mediation.*

Cost: The fee for this training is $795.00 for participants whose sole purpose is to become a private court-roster mediator. The fee is reduced to $50.00 for participants who will be actively volunteering for Mediation Services. To be eligible for the reduced fee, participants must agree to volunteer for two years for Mediation Services and co-mediate once a month for eight months of each year. Please know we seek and value your service!

Participants must attend the entire training to receive a certificate of completion and then complete ten hours of mediation observation to be eligible to co-mediate cases.

Space is limited. To register, complete this page and submit it with payment to Mediation Services as soon as possible to secure a slot in one of the following ways:

- ❖ Email to EGiddings@MediationServices.works
- ❖ Fax to 616.399.1090
